by the local body only after obtaining the prior concurrence of the town and country department.

5. If a low tension / high tension power line / telegraph line is passed through the plots, the line should be shifted to the edge of the road or as shown on the approved Layout Plan.

6. The low laying part of the layout area should be raised to street level

7. On all streets exceeding 7.2 meters in width, shading type trees shall be planted in symmetrical type within 1.00meters from boundary and not more than 9.00 meters in length of the road.

8. The applicant must obtain final approval regarding the plots/ Layout from the concerned Local Body. Also, before constructing any buildings in the plots, the applicant should be obtained necessary permission from the Town and Country Planning department or the Local Body Office concerned.

9. a) As only planning permission / concurrence has been given to the said plot by the District Town and Country Planning Office. If any problem arises regarding the ownership of land for the plot, it should be considered and decided by the local body.
b) When the said plots are approved by the Local Body, a copy of the approval should be sent to this office, along with a copy of certificate / Acknowledgement (gift deed document) of handover of the public open spaces to the local body concerned.

10. Once the applicant receives the approval of the layout plan from the District Town and country planning office, the approved layout plan shall be permanently displayed at the entrance of the layout without any change and complete details for public view through a 60cm x 120cm permanent display board along with the details of resolution number and date of the layout.
11. The Land ownership is considered as per the land ownership documents submitted by the applicant. Therefore, it is also submitted that no right can be asserted on the ground that layout has been approved where there is no actual title to the land.

12. If the Documents provided for the land ownership and others documents submitted for consideration are found to be incorrect or if there is a situation where the Planning Permission / Concurrence approval for the plot might be affected, the planning permission/ concurrence granted to the layout will be cancelled by the District
Town and Country Planning department without any prior notice.

13. A copy of the plan approved by the District Town and Country Planning Department along with a copy of this order shall be compulsorily provided to the purchasers while the plots are sold.

14. (a) Deputy Director(i/c), Dindigul District Town and Country Planning office letter cited under reference No.18 above, clarification on the objection petition called,
but the petitioner did not responded for this office letters.

(b) The Madurai Bench of Madras High Court case under reference No.17 above, the following orders received on the CORAM dated 25.06.2025.

“In order to prove as to whether the suit property is the ancestral property or self acquired property, the revenue records will not be of any use and the Village Administrative Officer is not the competent person to establish that the suit property is the ancestral property. Only the title documents will prove the fact that whether the property is ancestral property or self acquired property. Instead of producing such documents, the petitioner, by filing applications for reopening the plaintiff side evidence and marking of documents through Village Administrative Office, is attempting to fill lacunae in her evidence and the same is not sustainable.”
Hence, the subject layout, further action is processed. If any further order received from High Court in future, accordingly action will be taken.
