APPROVAL TYPE
Building Plan

ISSUING AUTHORITY

PURPOSE
Residential

The approval as the planning authority issued it, reproduced in full behind this page.

An approval speaks to what was sanctioned, not to what was built. Completion is a separate record.

Architectural elevation drawing of a building facade. The drawing shows a rectangular structure with a flat roof. On the left side, there is a vertical section with a series of horizontal lines, possibly representing a wall or a screen. To the right of this section is a larger rectangular area. Above this area, there is a small rectangular protrusion labeled "WATER TANK". A dimension line above the water tank indicates a width of 2.78. The drawing is labeled "ELEVATION - A" at the bottom.

Prepared from the registers named on the page each finding sits on. Where a register could not be read, this document says so in its place rather than leaving the gap to be read as a clean result.
