APPROVAL TYPE

Building Plan

ISSUING AUTHORITY

Rural Panchayat

The approval as the planning authority issued it, reproduced in full behind this page.

An approval speaks to what was sanctioned, not to what was built. Completion is a separate record.

A line drawing of a building facade. The building has two main levels. The ground floor features a central entrance with a small set of stairs leading up to it. To the left of the entrance is a large window, and to the right is another large window. Above the entrance, there is a small rectangular window. The upper floor has a series of windows: a large window on the left, followed by a smaller window, then a larger window, and finally a smaller window on the right. The roofline is flat, and there are decorative elements like small circles and rectangular shapes along the top edge.

Prepared from the registers named on the page each finding sits on. Where a register could not be read, this document says so in its place rather than leaving the gap to be read as a clean result.
